¡Bienvenido! Welcome to Rolando's Nuevo Latino Restaurant' located in the beautiful downtown historic district of Fort Smith, Arkansas. This beautiful building has been the home of many businesses. Starting in the early 1900's it was home of Border City Auto Company and a Ford Dealership. It has housed many restaurants like Tiger Harry's and LJ's. The last business in this building was a Latino Night club, before it was purchased by Rolando and Sherri Cuzco.

After the purchase, this old building needed a lot of tender love and care which only these two could offer.

Rolando, being the artist of all artists, could see what no one else could see in the smokey old walls. With sleeves rolled up, he went to work as only he could do. Rolando hand picked stone for the walls and attached them for a unique textured look. He created brick walls where there was no brick, and painted Rolando's signature gold and yellow, turning this building into a work of art. Let your eyes explore others creations like the wooden post covered in Ecuadorian tiles Rolando brought from home. Above the kitchen window notice the art work brought from the original store on Garrison, and the many hand woven tapestries, along with subtle art worked into the walls.

Welcome to the new home of Rolando's. May your experience be one of total satisfaction as you taste and smell the fragrances from Rolando's home in South America and may you feel the warmth from Sherri's Southern Hospitality.

Thank you for dining with Rolando's. You, the customers, make the dream become a reality and Rolando and Sherri truly appreciate each and every single one of you.

Bienvenidos to Rolando's Restauranté in the beautiful downtown historic district of Fayetteville. This building dates back to the late 1800's. The unique construction of portions of this renovated building are god examples of early twentieth-century commercial architecture in the state.

Fayetteville's commercial growth began in earnest after the arrival of the St. Louis - San Francisco Railroad to Dickson Street in 1881, thus the Frisco Depot. The railroad brought growth to Dickson as well as the surrounding area, which would include Spring Street, the new home for Rolando's.

Rolando's is the inspired creation of partners Rolando Cuzco, a native of Ecuador, and Sherri Overton Cuzco, of Southwest Arkansas. To realize their dreams, they began with their unique backgrounds to produce the exciting foods of Latin America in a setting of southern hospitality. Rolando and Sherri appreciate every customer that comes to Rolando's Restauranté. Muchas gracias for making Rolando's a reality.
